

A Song of the Sea

James Morris

Winfield S. Weeden

Moderato

E B7 E E

The bru - tal - iz - ing ty - ran - ny en - dured be - fore the mast By reb - el toil - ers of the sea through - out the a - ges past Has fanned the flames of dis - con - tent and urged us all a - new To join the u - nion of our Class, the

4 A E

6 B E

8 A E

B

E

10

M. T. W. Sea - men, let's go and join the O. B. U. (Fire - men, stew - ards, and long-shore-men, too); No mas - ter class shall wine and dine while

B7

12

E

14

E

B7

16

we on swill must eat; We'll take the things we helped cre - ate and give our-selves a treat. From bat - tles of the past we learn to or - gan-ize a-right; Di - vid - ed then, we could - n't hope to win in an - y fight; But now in One Big U - nion we will march to vic - tor - y; And with our might we'll win the fight to

18 B7 E E

20 A E

22 B E

24 A E

26 B E
end our sla - ver - y. Sea - men, let's go and

28 B7
join the O. B. U. (Fire - men, stew - ards,

30 E
and long-shore-men, too); No mas - ter class shall wine and dine while

32 B7 E
we on swill must eat; We'll take the things we helped cre - ate and

34 B7 E E

give our-selves a treat. No more we'll hike a-round the town and to our mas-ters plead A chance to work that we might buy the

36 A E

38 B E

wife and kids a feed; We'll put the boss in o-ver-alls and

40 A E

sign him for a trip And work him in the hell-holes that

42 B E B7

con - st - tute a ship. Sea - men, let's go and join the O. B. U.

45 E

(Fire - men, stew - ards, and long-shore - men, too); No

47 B7

mas - ter class shall wine and dine while we on swill must eat; We'll

49 E B7 E

take the things we helped cre - ate and give our - selves a treat.